Parent Community Advisory Group

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to share with you an exciting opportunity, which will allow our parents and families to shape the next phase of development for Brookvale Primary School.

In the past year, The Arthur Terry Learning Partnership Trust Board has taken on responsibility for many of the governing body functions for schools. As such, we have decided that the traditional governance model is no longer needed at Brookvale.

Instead, we are proposing that we establish a brand-new Parent Community Advisory Group (PCAG), of 6-8 members, who work together to improve the educational and wider experiences of our children. This group would meet 3-4 times per year (at a time convenient to parents) and would be responsible for:

- Identifying the needs of our school/wider community and finding ways that we can 'give back'
- Engaging the community in the work of the school
- Developing links with local employers and companies to enhance the school experience for our children
- Acting as a voice for the school community
- Celebrating the schools achievements more widely

If you would like to be part of this exciting new initiative, please speak to Mr Day at the beginning or end of day or email your interest to office@brkvale.bham.sch.uk

Yours Sincerely

Mr Stuart Day
